“We are people with and without disabilities creating an artistic culture together to realize our full potential.”

The Arts of Life supports over 60 adult artists with disabilities at two collective art studios in the Chicagoland area. Studio programming is dictated by the specific interests and talents of our artists, who work collaboratively with volunteers and staff to manage and develop the studio. We are guided by the principles that all artists, regardless of disability, should have the opportunity to be members of an artistic community that: 1) develops organically based on their individual and collective needs; 2) is constantly shaped by their opinions, choices and interests; and 3) contributes to the larger arts community and society in general.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM AND SERVICES: With more than 132 years of experience caring for children in need, Maryville continues its embrace of today's troubled children and families in crisis. Whether a child living at home needs healthy and safe recreational activities, or help transitioning from hospital to home, or a safe refuge at our Crisis Nursery, Maryville provides compassionate care. For those children who unfortunately cannot live safely at home or who have taken to the streets, we provide specialized care and residential treatment centers. We offer outpatient services at our Family Behavioral Health Clinic in Des Plaines.

At Maryville, we are focused on some of our community's most critical issues. Our range of programs includes residential programs, behavioral and mental health services, family support services, secondary and special education, and community development programs.

Psychiatric Hospital and Outpatient Services: In addition to providing behavioral health in our programs, Maryville also works with children ages 3 to 20 with complex emotional and mental health needs. Maryville provides caring, individualized and therapeutic services to these special children.

Education and Vocation: Education and vocational experiences are fundamentally important to the process of helping people achieve their fullest potential. Maryville offers a range of both educational and vocational services for children living at Maryville and for students living in our community.

Family Support: We believe that the best place for children to grow up is in families. Maryville offers resources to support and preserve families through a respectful, strengths-based approach that views the family as central to the child's well-being. Maryville also provides care for families and their children ages 0 to 21 who are medically fragile in a caring and compassionate environment.

Group Homes & Residential Treatment Centers: Maryville provides a safe and stable living environment for those who are unable to live at home. While children live at Maryville, a team of highly-trained professionals works with them and their families with the goal of restoring family life whenever possible.

Youth Outreach and Athletics: Maryville strives to educate and empower young people with the knowledge and skills they need to make a lasting contribution to our community. We work with children, adolescents, and young adults providing them with a solid educational foundation, athletic opportunities, and vocational experiences giving them the skills they need to succeed in the world, and to become a positive influence in the community.

Maryville Special Events and Sports Complex: Hosting a social gathering for 20 people? Or 300? Need a gym or baseball field for an upcoming event? Want to do an off-site training and need a classroom set-up? Want to help others while finding a great place for an event? Look no further...the Maryville Special Events and Sports Complex can help you host your gathering.

Stephen Sexton Training Institute: For service providers serving children, adolescents and their families, the Stephen Sexton Training Institute fills a gap of information about the prevalence, consequences and effective treatment of trauma in people's lives. For others involved with children like school personnel, first responders, and emergency room staff, the Stephan Sexton Training Institute introduces the issue of trauma, its consequences and its treatment.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM AND SERVICES:

BILINGUAL SERVICES PROVIDED:

REMARKS OR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

You want to help, but you want to be sure your gift will truly matter – and that it will benefit people in Park Ridge. Since 1958, the Park Ridge Community Fund has made it happen.

With one convenient gift, you help provide healthy outlets and medical care for youth, social services for seniors and the homebound, a safe haven and advocacy for domestic violence and abuse victims, education and care for seriously disabled adults and children, mental health care and services for families in crisis, and much more. Some needs are obvious, others are hidden; all affect our quality of life right here in Park Ridge.

Each year, PRCF's local board assesses our community's needs, and then we raise and allocate funds to approved local charities and non-profit organizations that serve those needs. PRCF is a 501(c)(3) organization and all donations are tax-deductible as allowed by law.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM AND SERVICES:

WINGS is a private, not-for-profit, social service agency that provides housing and supportive services for people struggling with domestic violence and homelessness. WINGS continues to grow and increase the services we are able to offer those in need. Incorporated in 1985, WINGS presently operates 24 homes and apartments that provide transitional shelter for up to 90 women and children each night. These homes are located throughout the north and northwest suburbs including Skokie, Des Plaines, Park Ridge, Mount Prospect, Arlington Heights, Palatine, Schaumburg, Hoffman Estates and Barrington. Answering an unmet need in the northwest suburbs, WINGS operates two emergency shelters – one in the Northwest suburbs and one in the city of Chicago. Together, WINGS transitional and emergency housing represents our commitment to providing community residents a continuum of services to help stop the cycles of violence and the devastation of homelessness and poverty.
